

Center for Tropical Medicine

Universitas Gadjah Mada

Zero TB city is a project conducted by the Center for Tropical Medicine (CTM), Faculty of Medicine, Public Health, and Nursing (FK-KMK), Universitas Gadjah Mada in collaboration with Dinas Kesehatan Yogyakarta, Dinas Kesehatan Kulon Progo, and Burnet Institute, Australia. The project aims to eliminate TB in Yogyakarta Province by applying active case finding, immediate TB treatment, contact investigation, and prevent TB disease among those in high risk of developing the disease. The district manager are the members of central team under the leadership of the Project Director of Zero TB city.

DISTRICT MANAGER OF KULON PROGO

Qualifications

Essential

1. Bachelor degree of health science, ex. medicine, public health, nurse, pharmacy.
2. Minimum 2 years-experience working in health subjects, such as: managing health facilities, monitoring and evaluation of health programs, managing health researches.
3. Intermediate level of English in writing and speaking.
4. Live in Kulon Progo district, or agree to live in Kulon Progo district.

Assets

1. Experience working in tuberculosis field.
2. Master of public health or epidemiology
3. Experience working with tuberculosis research, survey, or population screening

Responsibilities

1. Ensure the link among different components of active case finding and contact investigation, such as mobile team, health facilities, geneXpert laboratories, and chest X-ray providers.
2. Ensure completeness and validity of data from those different components and prepare the database for analysis of different activities.
3. Support research activities of Zero TB city.
4. Participate in the training, meeting, and other programs of Zero TB City.

Submit your applications (Application Letter and CV) to:

pusatkedokterantropis@ugm.ac.id CC at ztbyogyakarta@gmail.com

Subject: ZTB District Manager_Name

Deadline: October 8th, 2020